

Summary for
Arkansas State Plan Transmittal #2004-005

This Medicaid State Plan amendment is to provide for compliance with the decree entered by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas in the case of Arkansas Medical Society v. Reynolds. The State will be able to comply with court ordered rate adjustments for services that are reimbursed based on physician reimbursement methodologies without having to amend the Medicaid State Plan each time the decree requires a rate adjustment.